That's it. We're history. High School's history. Yes, believe it or not, the Class of 1994 is history.

History at Marshfield High usually evokes images of the Italian Napoleone, Parties and Politics, the Irish Guy, the Republican strongman. But this 'history' oversteps conventional forms of history. During our four years at MHS, we made history - all of which will never be forgotten. So, here we applaud the Class of 1994, history-makers - immortal and unique in every sense of the word.

Surely, we will be remembered for many things. For one, the Class of 1994 proved often to be the 'last' of the bunch. We were the last people to take the old SATs. Many of us were the last group of students to learn from the power-packed Virginia Ross, a legend in her own right. We may be the last bunch of kids to be spared longer school days, years, or other exciting changes.

Finally, and sure to figure prominently in the books, we will go down as the last of the 'true' freshmen (at least in our time). As stumbling, bumbling ninth graders, our first experiences of Marsh-field High mirrored those of countless others in years past. Too small not to intimidate and too big to ignore, we journeyed into our new world as quietly as we could. The seniors were almost mythical figures and, as so, we tried not to upset their celestial powers. Everything said new - even books decades old, and we said all right. Harvey Horwitz's bizarre traffic schemes and anti-abuse lectures made the high school practically a freedom lover's dream. Unlike many who have come before us and some who came after us, the begin called Marshfield High almost immediately adopted us as one of its own.

And it didn't take long for us to throw ourselves headfirst into the many comings and goings of high school life. Often rushing to the forefront of our memories and providing a clear documentation of many of MHS's highs and lows were the adventures of the head-butting, high-flying Rams. We were there for the hockey team's miraculous tournament runs during our sophomore and junior years. We remember the football team's battles with those scroungy Dragons and, most of all, the 1991 league championship. We witnessed the MHS girls soccer team's first ever winning season, tournament berth, postseason win, ACL championship, and state semifinal. Like wise, we saw the boys soccer squad go it back-to-back with consecutive Atlantic Coast League championships, the first boys soccer titles in MHS history.

But memories were made in many places beyond the courts, rinks and fields. In the bustling hallways and classrooms of the Old Brick Beauty, we soaked up or sometimes did our best to block out the infinite wisdom of our elders. From Bill's pop to the strong-minded Ericksons to the witty Hern-dog to the many other never-forgets with the ability to make our schooldays either happy or hellish, class always proved to be something.

And on the streets of Marshfield we made sure to make our presence known. With skilled and experienced role models preceding us in the partying arena, we hit the sights as best we could. The in-hangouts changed seemingly from month to month, from Famous to Cumberland to Friendly's to McDonalds to whatever at the time happened to float our boat. Summer-time meant beach-time, from morning through night and into the next morning as we time and time again frequented Ninth Road, Humarock, Burke's Beach, and other popular, wonderful strips of sand.

Yet, in the end, we will probably be remembered as the bunch which stamped consummate 'class' in the 'Class' of 1994. While surely able to have our fun now and then, we still kept our heads when others could not. The Prom and Senior Night Out did not gain fame as drunken free-for-alls but instead as clean fun-for-alls. We earned admirers of all ages for our hard work, our hard play, and our hard-boiled affable character. This class will be remembered as one always good for a laugh, a hug, and a smile. Like in a certain Boston Bar, Marshfield High for the Class of 1994 became a place where everybody knew your name - where they were always glad you came.

So cheers to good old Marshfield High — to the memories and to the people.

-Greg Bozelho-

1994 YEARBOOK DEDICATION

Mrs. Darlene M. Cullen

Mr. Thomas McMahon

When one things about Mrs. Darlene Cullen, they think about pride, courage and determination. Whether it was in the classroom teaching French or after school advising the AFS club, those traits seemed to follow her like a shadow. Through the AFS club, she has brought global awareness to our school and our community. Mrs. Cullen has made her love for young people and teaching very clear and she has always been able to find time to help a student in need. She has been a person who helped her students to succeed not only in the classroom, but in the game of life as well. To many of us she has been more than a French teacher, she's been a friend-someone who lends an ear, gives her thoughts and one who will always stand behind you.

Mrs. Cullen made class fun and most of all while made her students feel good about themselves. Her sense of humor enabled her to wear a smile despite any difficulties that faced her. As a teacher at MHS, Mrs. Cullen spread a feeling of happiness wherever she went, mainly because she saw the good in everyone and everything. That is perhaps the most valuable lesson that any of us could have learned from her. Darlene Cullen is a truly a unique and special person to whom the class of 1994 proudly dedicates its yearbook.

As Atlas holds up the heavens, so too Mr. McMahon holds up the mantel of conservatism. From his pulpit in Room 255, Mr. McMahon spreads his message to the unconverted (liberal) heathen. He accomplishes this through his prodigious news clippings. But, it is his dynamic and impassioned speeches that make his classes so enjoyable.

Through his proselytizing, Mr. McMahon does more than swell the ranks of the Republican party. He gives students the tools to negotiate through a world of liberal "spin doctors". These tools will remain with his students, and prove invaluable in the future.

Mrs. Linda Fader

"Hold fast to dreams For if dreams die Life's a broken-winged bird That cannot fly."

Langston Hughes

Graduation from high school is the first real turning point in your life. It's a time to reflect on your childhood and your years at Marshfield High, but more importantly it's a time for anticipating your future. Go towards it enthusiastically, supported by the bonds of love and friendship you have already formed. If you offer your best efforts to the world, you will find happiness. Most importantly, hold on to your dreams. They will sustain you.

Working with this wonderful class has been an enriching and rewarding experience for me. The best of luck to all of you.

CHEERLEADING

May you never forget to "grab it like you want it."
May you never fail to "stay in a horizontal line," and may you never, ever forget that we love every single one of you. You have given so much to us. You gave us a great squad.
You gave us great dancers.
You even gave us great attitudes when we were a bit ... obnoxious. But, most of all, you gave us some great times and memories to last a lifetime. We'll never forget you!!!
You're the best — Thank you!!!

P.S.- May you always cherish the "baby shark" who forced us to "do our thang" while hearing chimes of "check her out!!"

The number of wins and losses does not indicate the heart and spirit demonstrated by this year's team. The team, led by the five seniors: Alyson Forester, Melissa MacMahan, Diana Perry, Jennifer Southard and Kerry Steele, and backed by a group of young but talented underclassmen certainly exhibited the meaning of "Never Giving Up".

The highlight of the season was the visit of a talented and fun loving Scottish team.

GYMNASTICS

The MHS gymnastics team had a greatly improved season. Niki Johnson, senior, helped behind the scenes with fundraising efforts and helped to keep the team spirit going as well as competing. Being a young team the future looks bright. The team finished the season with a record of 5 wins and 7 losses. The team score average increased almost a full 10 points over the previous season. Freshman Jayme Fitzgerald and Alicia Barker led the team with the highest scores on all four events during the season as well as earning individual and all around medals at the League meet.

Solid performances and scores by team captains Jessica Arsenault and Erika Hoehn added to the strength of the roster, Juniors, Lynn Banfill, Bridgette Callahan, Karalee Serra, Kara Stokes, Caryl Tarantino and Jill Goslin all added their efforts to ensure the progress of the team. Sophomores Kate Bivianio, Shilo Randall and Allison Rofe consistently competed and scored well to add depth to the team. Eighth graders Sandy Banfill, Lauren Bergin, Jill Manning, Andrea Palli, Mary Pierce, Lauren Rigney and Kristen Scott proved the future for the gymnastics team will be successful. Manager Michelle Reardon worked diligently at all the meets, keeping the scores and organizing the meets to help keep everything working smoothly. The spirit and effort of this team will lead them on to even more success in the future.

The 1993-1994 Boys basketball team finished with a 13-8 record. They played in the state tournament for the 3rd year in row, losing to Briantree 56-52. The team finished in second place in the league behind state champions Duxbury.

On January 18th the rams took Duxbury to overtime before losing 59-51. It took a Mickey Curley 3pt shot with no time on the clock to send the game into overtime.

The Rams were led by Capt. Bill Deftos and seniors Matt Bearce, Brian Tingley, Sean Morey, Don Robicheau, Bill Nicholson, Drew Geary and Adam Thomas.

Congratulations on a wonderful season!

The girls' basketball program made great strides during the 1993/94 season. The varsity, junior varsity, and freshmen teams ended the year with energy and enthusiasm. Captain Kate Harrington, the sole senior, led the varsity team to one of its best finishes in years. The future looks bright for this exceptional group of talented young athletes.

HOCKEY

The 93-94 Rams hockey team surprised everyone in the league, finishing in 2nd place and qualifying for the 3rd straight year. Everyone was predicting a "rebuilding year" for the Rams with mostly 9th and 10th graders filling most of the spots on the team. But true to Marshfield hockey's tradition a strong second half of the season, helped them into the tournament with an 11-4-5 record. Led by senior All-Scholastic Mike McIntire (captain). The scoring feats of freshman Evan Crockford and sophomore Marcus Willy and a very improved corps of defensemen Travis Ford, Gary Emond, Mike Sheehan, Brian Hartigan and Kevin Hunter surprised all. Scoring very important goals down the stretch drive and into the tournament were seniors Brian Erickson and Corey Simmons. Goal tender Jack Houghton was again the backbone of the team's defense, Houghton was again the backbone of the team's defense, putting together several outstanding performances against co-champs Hingham and Whit./Han. Seniors Brian Erickson, Corey Simmons, Kevin Hunter, Melissa Melvoen, Mike McIntire and Jack Houghton go out knowing they were the only group of seniors that can say "They beat Hingham". The coaching of Jack Crowley, Jim McSweeney and Mike McDonald were very pleased with the overall improvement and the hustle and show of true sportsmanship by this years team.

RUGBY CLUB

The 1993-94 season was one of the most exciting and most successful in the 13 year history of the club. In October, the club hosted Marr College from Scotland. Although not indicated by the lopsided score, Marshfield played a very fierce match against the Scots and hopes to return the visit to Scotland in 1995.

The Spring season saw more exciting scoring by Marshfield than ever before with seven boys scoring 4 tries or more, four boys scoring over 50 points led by MVP and Captain, Fred Dix Marshfield hosted the first ever Massachusetts State Tournament and fell short of the championship by only one point (13-12) to Brookline High in the final. The highest point of the season, however, was winning the New England Seven-a-Side Tournament on a rain drenched day at Brookline. This is the first "A" Division Championship Marshfield has ever won. The club ended the regular season with a respectable 6 wins, 6 losses going into the New England (full side) Tournament seeded #5. The club played well but was eliminated by eventual finalist, Barrington by only one try and a conversion, 7 to 0. Graduating Captain, Mike Cipullo will be greatly missed along with senior. Chris Jackson; but the remainder of the team including the entire back-line will be returning for another promising season in 1995.

1994 Season Scoring 55 points • Fred Dix 54 points • Greg Chiasson 1 penalty 53 points • Greg West 53 points • Greg West 52 points • Mike James 40 points • Darrell Nobles 25 points • Ben Cabral 5 points • Ben Cabral 5 points • Mike Cipullo 1 Try 5 points • Aaron Movestian 1 Try 3 14 Points Scored vs. 134 Points given up

In loving memory of our friend Calvin Coon

There is a truth but you have to look for it.

Although most people just ignore it

When you live, when you die,

if you haven't found it,

they won't ask why.

It's the truth, a simple truth,

What is this truth you ask me?

Now the only thing that it can be,

it's very simple.

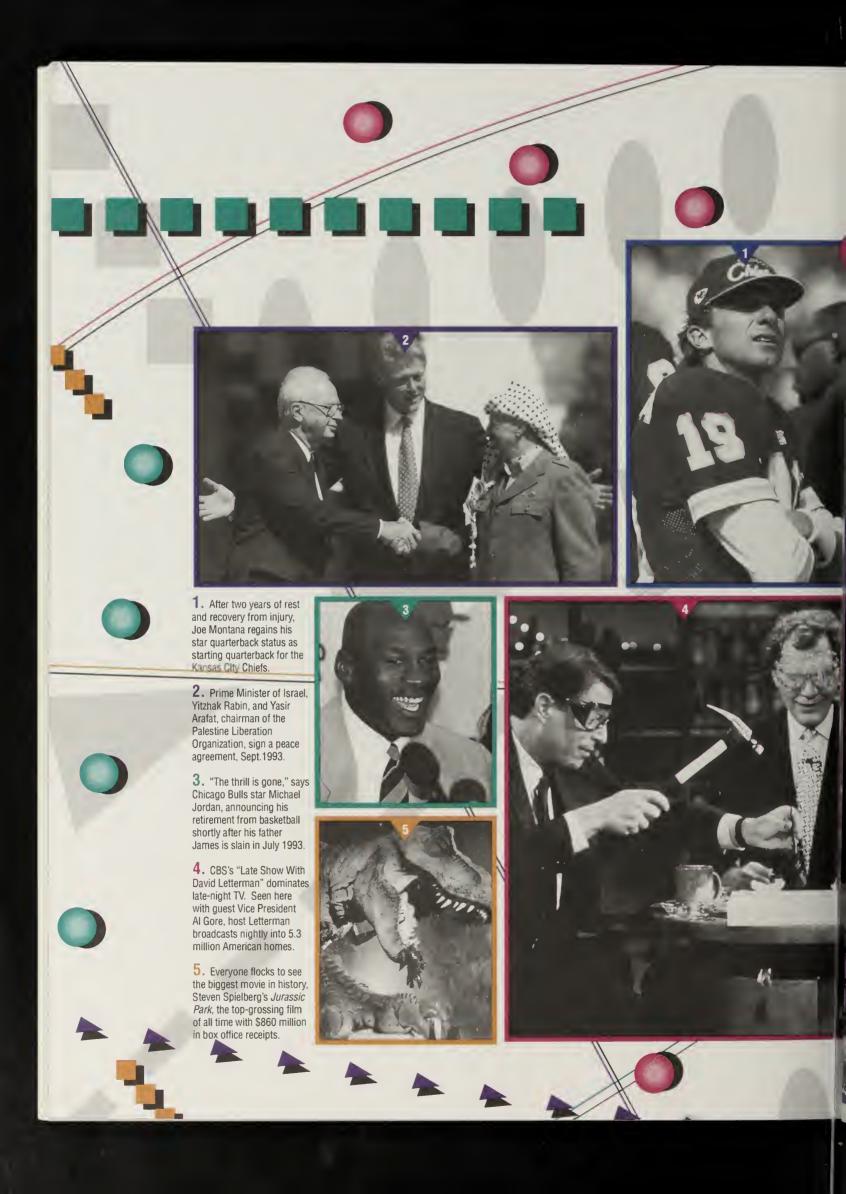

It must be family.
